JOB PRINTING.
The JOB DEPARTMENT in the Democrat Office is now ready for all kinds of printing. Bills, Circulars, Cards, Posters, &c., printed at the shortest possible notice, and at prices to suit the times.

WANTED.—A steady negro man, for the balance of the year. Apply at Democrat office.

ARREST OF LADIES.—Yesterday a party of ladies the number of twenty-one congregated at a house on one of the principal streets through which the prisoners that arrived from Cumberland Gap were to pass in going to the depot for the river. As they passed the house the ladies were seen to wave their handkerchiefs, heard to shout for Jeff Davis and make other manifestations of their rebel sympathies. These facts were communicated to Col. Hanson, Provost Marshal, who sent a guard and had the party arrested. An old gentleman, who was with the ladies, accompanied them to the office of the Provost Marshal. Witnesses were then examined, when it was proved that only a portion of the ladies were guilty of the accusations made against them. Col. Hanson in a very firm but gently manner informed the entire party that they had better have to take the oath of allegiance to the Federal Government, after which they would be released.
The entire party, with the exception of an aged lady and the old man who accompanied them, expressed their willingness to take the oath, but these two replied that they would die first. Those who were willing to take the oath were informed that they were at liberty to go, and would not be required to take the oath. The old gentleman and lady who refused were escorted by a file of soldiers to the military prison, where they will be confined until they come to the conclusion to take the oath. As we stated yesterday, Col.
Hanson will have all persons cheering rebel prisoners arrested, and all who refuse to take the oath will be confined in the military prison.

FUEL.—There is a great scarcity of fuel in this city at present, and it is commanding exorbitant prices. The price of coal has now become so high that it is almost out of the reach of the poor. The supply in the city is very small, and if the river continues at the present low stage, the prospect is that prices will further advance. Owing to the advance of coal, wood has also been advanced 50 percent, and is now selling in our city at $7.50 per cord. The dealers in all kinds of fuel are taking advantage of the necessities of the people, and charge any price they please.
The cold season will commence shortly, and then the question of fuel will become a serious one, and unless the price should decline, a number of poor but deserving persons will be compelled to weather the cold blasts of winter without the means of keeping warm. The prospects are that there will be no use in the river until the latter part of November, even if there should be one that soon. Coal has again advanced, and now dealers are charging as high as $15 per load, or 60 cents per bushel.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Thursday, Sept. 24.— James Kompus, drunkenness, &c.; $100 for sixty days. Workhouse.
Jose Rivers, drunk as usual; $100 for three months. Workhouse.
Martin Kelly, drunk and abuse of his family; discharged.
John Carico, suspected felon; $900 for six months; Gibson bail.
One peace warrant and one assault warrant disposed of.
James Gallagher, charged with a felony, stealing clothing, &c., was discharged.
James Wilson and John Weston were presented upon a charge of entering Daniel Johnson's house, in Shelby county, and robbing it of $25. They were placed in the hands of Marshal Hydes for transfer to Shelbyville for trial. L. H. King, who had income was suspected as an accomplice, was discharged, no evidence whatever appearing against him.

WE PUBLISHED a few days ago a notice of the arrest of several persons charged with burglary in Shelby county. From some means unexplained seemed to attach to L. H. King, who resides in the upper portion of the city, and he was arrested as an accomplice. Upon the trial on Thursday morning he was discharged, as there was no evidence whatever against him. He was in the city at the time the robbery was committed; and his first knowledge of the affair was his arrest and imprisonment for the alleged crime. He was honorably discharged; and it is hard indeed if one's reputation should suffer with regard through the misrepresentations of malicious persons.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Yesterday Nicholas, oldest son of Mr. Joseph Palzer, residing on Green street, between Jackson and Hancock, died very suddenly under the following circumstances: The family were at the dinner-table partaking of their regular meal, when Nicholas was seen to fall to the floor. No rising, his father went to his assistance, when, to his great astonishment, he found that his son was a corpse. The friends of the distressed mother can be better imagined than described. The young man had been complaining of being unwell for some time.

CENTER COLLEGE.—This institution opened on Monday, the 14th inst., with very flattering prospects. The very large number of new students, with the comparative quiet through this general region of country, leads to the confident expectation not only of a highly prosperous session during the next ten months, but of enlarged usefulness in time to come.

ARRIVAL OF PRISONERS.—Yesterday morning a train arrived from Frankfort, containing some twelve hundred rebel prisoners, the balance of the forces captured by Burnside at Cumberland Gap. These prisoners looked as if they had seen hard service, and were much fatigued. They were forwarded to Camp Douglas under strong guard.

PARDONED.—The negro woman Caroline, who was convicted as the last term of the Circuit Court for poisoning the child of Mr. Levi, in this city, and sentenced to be hung in Angust, and afterwards reprieved until the first Friday in September, has been pardoned by Governor Bramlette.

WOOD'S THEATRE.—To-night is the farewell benefit of Miss McCarthy and Mr. Vincent, when we hope to see the house crowded.
The bill consists of the "Wild Flower" and "A Day in Paris," in both of which places Miss McCarthy and Mr. Vincent appear.

NO EASTERN MAIL.—The train from Cincinnati yesterday failed to make connection with the Indianapolis train at Seymour, and consequently we were without our Eastern mail.

PERSONAL.—Lieut. M. A. Hogan, one of the heroes in the fight at Green River Bridge between John Morgan and Col. Moore, on the 4th of July last, is in the city on business.

A Romance in Steel Life—An Interesting Love Scrape.

A few days ago we came in possession of the following facts, which, we are assured, are perfectly reliable: Some time since a young lady of respectable and wealthy connections—Miss A. G.—being young, beautiful and highly accomplished, had the good fortune to have two young and good-looking suitors—J. T. and B. L.
—for her hand in marriage; and in the course of time, as a most natural consequence, she became engaged to one of the young gentlemen—J. T.—and the time fixed for the celebration of the nuptials was yesterday, the 24th inst. All things having been prepared, nothing was wanting but the happy day to arrive when the two would be made one.

But a change came over the "spirit of their dream." On last Saturday evening, while the young lady and her betrothed were enjoying a delightful (?) tele-a-tile in the parlor, a slight tap was heard on the window. All was soon bustle and confusion, as it soon became known throughout the household that the other suitor, B. A., was in waiting with a carriage for the purpose of conveying his lady-love away from the parental roof, for the purpose of getting spliced. But it was no go.
Owing to a blunder made by one of the female domestics, the proceedings of the evening were suddenly brought to a close. Instead of communicating the fact to the young lady of her true lover, in a quiet and peaceable manner, according to programme, she made the announcement public as above stated. The confusion that followed can be better imagined than described. Miss A. G., in a flood of tears, is supposed to have declared her innocence; while Mr. J. T., her betrothed, is supposed to have taken his hat and left very suddenly, as he was evidently aware of the fact that his presence was no longer desirable; and Mr. B. A., as a matter of course, soon took his departure, having in the mean time made the necessary arrangements for meeting the young lady at a more convenient and less dangerous place of rendezvous, which was safely effected without further trouble, and early on Sunday morning they were united in the holy bands of wedlock.

The feelings of the unfortunate young man can, perhaps, be imagined by those who have been placed in similar circumstances; but we will not attempt a description.
The young lady's father has disinherited her, and has declared his intention of never again allowing her to cross his threshold, while J. T. has declared in the most positive manner that he will be avenged.

The case is a very interesting one, and is likely to lead to more serious events, of which we may be able to give the particulars in a few days.
The literary circles of Paris have met with a serious loss in the death of Mons. De-lecluze, who was above forty years the critic and, for more than twenty-one years the musical critic of the Journal des Debats. The Paris correspondent of the Cincinnati recives a good story of Talma, the great tragedian, and Mlle. Mars, the no less distinguished French actress, appropriate of the death of Delecluze, who was one of the persons present at the famous scene. It runs that she had just been seen by a brilliant Colonel whom she devotedly loved.
She was almost broken-hearted. She sobbed.
She screamed. She apostrophized the absent fickle soldier who had become estranged with all those charms which the world never gives up without a morsel of food passing her lips. Her attendants really apprehended that death would ensue, and they conjured Talma to come and try to persuade her to relinquish his fatal resolution. Talma came, made the cook give him a savory soup, went to Mlle. Mars, who had not spoken a word for a whole day, and said to her in his tones of deepest tragedy:
"See here, Mars, 'tis thy old comrade—'tis Talma, who begs of thee—take—take this soup!"
The words were scarcely out of his mouth when Mlle. Mars took her handkerchief from her eyes, and, turning suddenly on Talma, said: "Go to the d—l with your soup! I order a good dinner." She laughed, and all the others laughed, and her days of mourning were at an end.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Yesterday two young lads about ten or twelve years of age, named Pettiger and Collins, got into an empty hay wagon standing at the corner of Twelfth and Grayson streets, for the purpose of getting a ride, when the driver, who was absent, should return. The boys had not more than got into the wagon when the horses took fright and started on Twelfth street at a furious rate.
In making the turn at the corner of Twelfth and Walnut, the wagon was upset and both boys were thrown out with great force.

Young Pettiger was seriously injured, having his skull fractured in two places, and last night he was lying in a critical condition, with but little hopes of his recovery. Young Collins had his right leg broken in two places.

In passing down Fourth street to Main we were attracted by a large gathering of ladies at the window of the Grover & Baker sewing machine office. We stopped to take a glance at the beautiful work we found it to be the premium work, which excels any thing we have ever seen done by a sewing machine. We can safely say to the public that our friend Mr. Oldeman, the agent, would be pleased to show them what the Grover & Baker sewing machine will do. We refer our readers to their advertisement in another part of our paper.

GERILLAS IN TENNESSEE.—A special dispatch to the Cincinnati Commercial says that 4,000 guerrillas, under Tom Murray, are hovering about Carthage, threatening to attack that place. A small force of guerrillas, under Hawkins, is reported lurking about, having headquarters at Williamsport, west of Franklin, on Duck river.

DENTAL OFFICE.—We direct the attention of citizens and others to the dental notice of Dr. W. D. Stone, in our columns this morning. He has taken the house on the west side of Fifth street, between Green and Walnut, formerly occupied by Colonel Thomas M. Hicks. Those in need of the dentist will find him prepared to serve them.

ARRESTED.—Yesterday officer Henry Ryan arrested a man by the name of Joseph Mit-tner on suspicion of having stolen several hundred dollars from John F. Emelin, in the ap-per part of the city, on last Monday. As the case will be heard before Judge Johnston this morning, we refrain from making any comments.

LOUISVILLE THEATRE.—To-night Mrs. F. B.
Lott takes a benefit, on which occasion Shakespeare's tragedy of "Macbeth" will be performed. Mrs. Lott appearing as "Lady Macbeth," and Mr. Conway as "Macbeth." Mrs. Conway is an actress of rare merit, and we hope she will have a full house.

There was a very interesting race at Cincinnati on Wednesday—mile heats, beat three in five—between O. W. Dimmick's Helen, R. Chaplin's John Paul and J. Con-kall's Brown Dick. The former won in three straight heats. Time, 2:30—2:30—2:30.

Henry Beebe, of company D, Twenty-fifth Michigan, the last of the wounded in the fight at Green river, between Col. Moore and John Morgan, on the 4th of July, died at Campbellville last Sunday.

After to-day all volunteers in three years' regiments, having less than one year to serve, will be entitled to a bounty of $400 on re-enlisting for three years or the war.

Newspaper correspondents with the army have been refused the use of the telegraph lines for the transmission of dispatches.

their advantage to attend the large sale of Cousin Cigars, at McGill's, 307 Green street, between Third and Fourth.

USE PREVENTIVES.—At this season of the year when malarial diseases prevail to a fearful extent, preventive remedies should be used to guard against attacks, and the best remedies should be employed. Lyons' or Catawba Brandy, manufactured from the Catawba grape, and the Greenberg Health Bitters, are very sure and excellent remedies, and may be had at the store of Raymond & Tyler, on Fourth street, near Main.

FRANKFORT, KY., Sept. 19, 1863.
It is hereby ordered that all citizens who have received arms from the State or General Government, will report the same, by letter, to this office immediately. Captains and other officers of "State Guards" will report, without delay, the number of arms received from every source, the disposition made of the same, and in whose hands said arms now are.
This order includes the arms known as "Lincoln guns." A strict compliance of this order will obviate the necessity of sending an officer into every house, where arms are known to have been carried.
By order of the Governor:
S. G. SUDARTH,
Quartermaster General.

WORLD'S FAIR, LONDON, 1863.—The Highest premium has been awarded for the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machines at the World's Fair, recently held in London, England, with all other sewing machines in competition.
This result was a matter of course, but is still highly complimentary to American genius, and a triumph more noteworthy considering the fact that the subject in England this marked recognition of this machine not only adds to its prestige, confirming, as it does, the numerous awards here, but it would satisfy Wilson's is the machine to do it.
